PROAGEN PHARMACEUTICALS, LLC EXPANDS INTO THE DALLAS MARKET

Continual Youth Anti-Aging Supplements Build Executive Offices in McKinney, Texas

DALLAS, TX- May 4, 2009- As the parent company to Continual Youth pharmaceutical-grade anti-aging supplements and nutraceuticals, Proagen Pharmaceuticals has signed a long-term contract with Sandler Southwest Corporation for Executive Office space in McKinney, Texas.

"We have seen the need to create an anti-aging program and vitamin supplement regimen for the Baby Boomers. Continual Youth products are 100% pharmaceutical grade supplements; this is to say we do not incorporate any filler into our supplements. This allows our clients to add anti-aging products into their lives and reap the benefits of an anti-aging product that is pure and more effective for their needs. As we continue to grow in each marketplace, we are certain to increase the longevity and the activity of our clients. We want to help our clients live an active and healthy lifestyle; our products are a venue to offer them this choice." said Scott Stawski, CEO of Proagen Pharmaceuticals, LLC.

Proagen Pharmaceuticals began in 2008 in Austin, Texas. The move to the Dallas metroplex has been an integral part of the Proagen Pharmaceuticals expansion plan into major markets within Texas and then into other markets across the country. Proagen Pharmaceuticals growth plans for the Continual Youth brand include Anti-Aging Clinics across the United States with even farther reaching clinics in Europe and Australia.

Continual Youth products are currently available online at www.ContinualYouth.com or through Amazon.com and eBay.com; plans to add wholesale distributors are in the works at this point with the expectation to bring retailers into the market mix by the end of fiscal 2009.
